

WILLIAM J. WALSH, Ph.D.

Economist

DEGREES:

Ph.D., Economics, M.A., B.A.

ACADEMIC WORK EXPERIENCE:

Associate Professor (1970-present) University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minnesota

Part-time instructor (1969 – 1970) Indiana University at South Bend

PUBLICATIONS, PAPERS AND PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES:

Project Director, National Science Foundation LOCI contract #78-00718, Fall, 1978.

"Keynesian Economics" (6 lessons), lessons teaching basic theory on the PLATO Computer System, supported by NSF contracts #78-00718 and #78-07060.

"An Estimate of the Elasticity of Demand for a Primary Parochial School," supported by a College of St. Thomas "Partner-in-learning" grant, Spring, 1984.

Vice-President, Economic Consulting Services, Inc. St. Paul, Minnesota, 1979-1986

"A Response to 'TEN YEARS AFTER THE OIL CRISIS: LESSONS FOR THE COMING DECADE'", The Biennial Report of the Energy Division, Minnesota Department of Energy and Economic Development, 1985.

This response was commissioned by a consortium of Minnesota utilities, and involved three other members of Economic Consulting Services, Inc.

Forensic Economic consulting, 1979-present

President: St. Thomas Federal Credit Union, 1990-2001